For Peter Feeney – MC

Peters work for us as MC of our annual awards ceremony, in the lavish and packed Regent Theatre, coupled the elegant and charming poise of James Spader's Allen Shore character (Boston Legal) with Adolph Hitler's vigorous enthusiasm for the podium. In character, or just as himself, Peter commands the attention of any audience: he is able to summon an extraordinarily wit at lightning speed to recover from any faux pas or unforeseen curveball. An audience cannot help but to gel with this most genial of men. I would have no hesitation in recommending him as an MC or entertainer for any event.
